

15 Sandheys Grove, Liverpool, L22 7RX

£220,000

This fantastic semi-detached home is located just a stone's throw from the iconic Crosby Beach and is perfectly positioned within walking distance of Waterloo train station, along with an excellent selection of shops, bars and restaurants. Situated on a sought-after and quiet close, it offers a rare combination of tranquillity and convenience in the ever-popular L22 postcode.

Originally designed as a two double bedroom property, the accommodation is currently configured as three bedrooms, offering a double bedroom and two compact singles which could be utilised as two home offices? This can easily be reverted back to two doubles if preferred.

The property benefits from valuable easy maintenance, paved outdoor space, a true rarity for homes in this prime coastal location. Internally there is a front lounge with bay window and focal gas fire place, dining room with gas fire, a compact kitchen and rear porch which offers clear potential to further increase its value by updating. This also also features a downstairs WC, adding to its practicality and appeal. Upstairs there is a double bedroom to the front aspect with electric fire and to the rear two single bedrooms which could be returned to one larger double. There is a shower room to side aspect.

Offered with no onward chain and sold as freehold, this property represents an ideal purchase for first-time buyers who do not want the costs associated with flats, investors or those seeking a lifestyle move close to the coast, with excellent transport links and amenities right on the doorstep.
